Pro Bono week 2025

London Citizens Advice welcomes this year's Pro Bono Week and the opportunity to engage with Pro Bono in action.

We share the same goals and ethos as the pro bono movement. As a service we involve volunteers in delivery of advice work, and our advice delivery stands as a key pillar the legal support eco-system in extending access to justice for those with social welfare legal problems such as housing and debt. Many of our local offices host clinics and partner up with law schools, legal charities and firms to deliver pro bono projects. Some examples include:

- Citizens Advice Haringey partners with Pro Bono Community to deliver the Advice Connect project to clients in Haringey with free legal advice on tenancy issues.
- Citizens Advice Brent runs the John Fisher clinic founded with Clyde and Co.
- RCJ Advice have a successfully utilised pro bono lawyers in civil and family rotas based at the Royal Courts of Justice.
- Citizens Advice Kensington and Chelsea have supported law students from UCL Access to justice clinic programme.
- Citizens Advice Wandsworth work with the University of Roehampton in delivering their clinic and training.
- Citizens Advice East End have worked in collaboration with Herbert Smith Freehills to deliver the Whitechapel Legal Advice Clinic.
- Citizens Advice Barking and Dagenham have worked with the Council's in house legal team and volunteer lawyers to deliver the DVFLAGEast Clinic.

Many local solicitors have longstanding relationships with local Citizens Advice offices, acting as honorary legal advisers, contributing above and beyond in their commitment to access to justice.

17 October 2025

The Great Legal Bake returns from 3-7 November. Bakers nationwide will raise much kneaded dough for the London Legal Support Trust in partnership with the Access to Justice Foundation.

Since 2013, the Great Legal Bake has attracted 1000's of bakers to fire up their ovens, bake delicious treats and raise vital funds for free legal advice charities across the UK.

Last year saw 112 organisations rise to the challenge- raising a fantastic £28,000. From bagels and buns to family secret recipes, legal themed bakes, and even shop bought cakes – this event is sure to bind colleagues (and clients) together and raise funds for a great cause; the proof is in the pudding!

CELEBRATING NATIONAL PRO BONO WEEK 2025

PERSONAL INJURY LAWYERS

OPINION NOVEMBER 3, 2025

DANIEL DENTON PARTNER

NO-WIN-NO-FEE | PERSONAL-INJURY

Pro Bono work is legal advice or representation provided free of charge by legal professionals in the public interest.

The combination of legal aid cuts made by the government and the Cost of Living Crisis is shining an even brighter light on the increase in Pro Bono work and its current increasingly vital role in our society.

Ever since I qualified, which is over 20 years ago now, I have been passionate about helping as many people as possible to have access to justice. I believe that every person should be entitled to legal representation irrespective of their financial position.

Hodge Jones & Allen have always been committed to helping those eligible for legal aid and, to providing support and free legal advice via Citizens Advice Bureaux, University Law Clinics and community groups.

Thinking differently and doing differently to achieve resolution for our clients and help get their lives back on track has always been an important value to our firm.

So, as more and more people are thankful for the benefits that technology brings to us, the introduction of online law clinic services has allowed me to widen the geographical area of free personal injury law advice that I can offer.

I believe access to justice is a right for everyone and Hodge Jones & Allen have been fighting for people's rights for 48 years. If you would like to learn more about the pro bono cases that Hodge Jones & Allen undertake, please call 0330 127 9801 or request a call back online.

Hodge Jones & Allen is a member of LawWorks – a charity working in England and Wales connecting volunteer lawyers with people in need of legal advice, who are not eligible for legal aid and cannot afford to pay for legal advice.

UK Pro Bono Week 2025 is taking place from 3rd November to 7th November 2025. The purpose of the event is to demonstrate to the general public that it is still possible to obtain legal advice and representation even if they are not in a financial position to afford it. It is also

Gibson Dunn joins the broader legal community in celebrating Pro Bono Week. During this week we recognize the incredible work of our lawyers on behalf of their pro bono clients, while also acknowledging our continued professional obligation to use our unique skillsets to enhance access to justice for the most marginalized members of our communities.

This year, it has been inspiring to see lawyers across the firm answer the call to service by taking on pro bono matters large and small. From impact litigation to nonprofit advice work to one-day clinics, these matters change lives and help everyone — not just the privileged few — access the justice system and exercise their rights. Lawyers across the firm have dedicated more than 184,000 hours to pro bono work this year, putting us on pace for our highest-ever pro bono totals.

Pro Bono in Action: Celebrating Pro Bono Week 2025

Published by Emily Howells on 30-Oct-2025 14:14:39

Every November, the legal profession comes together to celebrate the incredible contribution of those who give their time and expertise to help others. Pro Bono Week 2025, running from 3-7 November, is an annual opportunity to recognise the power of pro bono work in improving access to justice and changing lives across the UK.

This year's theme – Pro Bono in Action – shines a light on the real stories behind pro bono: the people, the partnerships and the positive impact they create. It also highlights how getting involved can benefit both communities and professionals, from developing new skills to strengthening collaboration across the sector.

How to get involved

There are many ways for legal professionals and organisations to take part in Pro Bono Week:

Host an event – Whether an internal discussion or a joint event with others, it's a great opportunity to share insights and celebrate your pro bono efforts. Event planning guidance is available at probonoweb.org.uk/event-plans.

Our week of Pro Bono in Action: Pro Bono Week 2025 highlights

weareadvocate.org.uk/news-and-stories/...

Our week of Pro Bono in Action: Pro Bono Week 2025 highlights

From our first ever Advocate Comedy Night to the Greater Manchester Pro Bono Awards, Pro Bono Week 2025 has truly been one to remember. The week has come a long way since its launch in 2004, when a double-decker bus toured the country offering free legal advice. This year, while there's no bus, the Advocate team has been busier than ever spreading awareness. We were involved in 26 events nationwide celebrating pro bono in action.

At the Launch Event on Monday, the Attorney General, Lord Hermer KC, opened the week with this year's theme, Pro Bono in Action. He described pro bono as the "lifeblood of the legal system." At the Bar, we see that lifeblood every day - barristers stepping up to represent parents in family courts, workers in employment disputes, and individuals navigating complex tribunals. These may not be headline cases, but they do change lives. In the past year alone, Advocate has reported supporting around 1,500 cases through our core casework service, with hundreds more through duty schemes. We were pleased that our founder, Lord Goldsmith KC, also joined the Launch Event panel, and reminded us that pro bono allows the law to belong to everyone: "Pro bono is part of the profession as a lawyer: doing the job and helping people who need help."

norfolkfoundation.com/what-we-ve-been-...

Pro Bono Week 2025: Pro Bono in Action

We love Pro Bono Week because it gives us the chance to celebrate local Norfolk businesses achieving social impact by partnering with us. At the Foundation, we've been connecting local businesses with charities since 2018, encouraging companies to share their expertise, resources, and skills to make a difference to communities on their doorstep. Pro Bono Week shines a light on how these exchanges can make a meaningful impact, helping charities thrive, solve community challenges, and create long-lasting positive change across Norfolk.

Norfolk Community Foundation started the Skills Exchange as a way to strengthen local charitable organisations and make it easier for them to access pro bono support. Part of our Good for Good programme, which gives an easy route for businesses to give back to their community and understand the difference they are making, the Skills Exchange alone delivered £45,000 of professional services to Norfolk charities, voluntary organisations and CICs last year.
